HOME DEPARTMENT

G.O. Ms. No. 3875 Home Department dated 20-10-48.

Read the following:-

O R D E R:

It has been brought to the notice of Government that many Government officers in the mufassal are in the habit of requiring buses to be taken either to their residences or to their offices to pick them up when they wish to travel. This practice causes considerable inconvenience to the travelling public and is in conflict with the provisions of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939 and the Madras Motor Vehicles Rules, 1940. It should be discontinued forthwith wherever it is in vogue.

The Government desire to impress upon all their officers that no preferential treatment should be claimed by them in the matter of travel by public service vehicles. Heads of Departments are requested to issue strict instructions in the matter to their subordinates and take suitable action whenever cases of breach of this order come to their notice.

No. 247 PRESS NOTE. ited 26-10-48.

It has been represented that many Government Officers in the mufassal are in the habit of requiring buses to be taken either to their residences or to their offices to pick them up when they wish to travel. The Government desire to inform the public that this practice is irregular and orders have been issued to all Government officers to discontinue the practice forthwith wherever it is in vogue.

The Government desire to inform the bus operators that it is their duty to instruct their employees not to take buses outside the prescribed routes to the offices or residences of Government officers.

Any case of a Government official requiring a bus to be taken to his residence or office to pick him up should be reported to his immediate superior officer for action against that official, and to the Road Traffic Officer concenned for action against the permit holder if the bus is so taken in contravention of Government's orders.
